People's Vote March

Our country is in crisis and this may be the last chance to make our voice heard before a scorched-earth Brexit is imposed on us all.

In the referendum three years ago Boris Johnson, like most Leave campaigners, promised No Deal could never happen. But now he wants to force it on us without our permission.

So on 19 October we are organising one of the biggest public protests Britain has ever seen, to demand a People's Vote.

The issue is urgent. Our cause is just.
